Why I Offer the Home Version for Free...

When I began creating printables years ago, I felt very convicted to keep a vast majority of those printables FREE in order to help other families who had very tight budgets. When I did begin creating bundles and products to sell, I still held strong to this conviction. I always try to offer the base materials of any units I create for free while also offering a bundled option with extras for those who can afford it and would like to support our family through your purchase.

God's word is powerful and teaching it to our young ones in a fun and meaningful way is priceless. It is my prayer that the free version of Raising Lil' Rock Stars blesses families who use it.

God Bless,
Carisa

A is for Attitude

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:5-8

Jesus had a loving attitude. He loved others more than he loved himself. When Jesus lived on earth he served others and did very nice things for many people. He helped many people and shared his loving attitude with others.

One of the ways you can show love to others through your attitude is by sharing your toys with a friend. In the picture you can see the little boy sharing his teddy bear with a new friend. Is his attitude loving and kind?

Do you have a loving attitude towards others?

When a friend wants to play with you, how can you show a loving attitude?

What do you need to ask God to help you with?

Are you struggling with your attitude at all?

Philippians 2:1-11

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:1-11

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus, 6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Page 2 ~ It is important to know the context of the verse you are teaching, on page 2 you will find the verses surrounding the key verse so you can read ahead of time to help you be prepared. This page is for the teacher to use alone, or if you have an advanced child you could use it together. If you are using it with a child, try to use a real Bible to look it up together to get practice finding books and verses!

K is for Kind

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.
Ephesians 4:32

How many kids do you see in the picture? Yes, there are five kids. Why do you think one is standing away from the others? He just joined their class and he is the new kid! The other kids are already great friends and they are welcoming the new boy into their group. They are being kind!

Can you imagine how he would feel if they were mean to him? What if they ignored him, or even laughed or made fun of him? God tells us to be kind and compassionate to one another.

Can you think of ways to be kind to others? What could you say to a new kid in your class? What could you do for someone who is sick or sad? What if someone was mean to you, should you be unkind then? No, we should be kind and treat others even better than they treat us, just like Jesus did!

Instructions for Christian Living

<sup>17</sup> So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. <sup>18</sup> They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts. <sup>19</sup> Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, and they are full of greed.

<sup>20</sup> That, however, is not the way of life you learned <sup>21</sup> when you heard about Christ and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup> You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; <sup>23</sup> to be made new in the attitude of your minds; <sup>24</sup> and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbor, for we are all members of one body. <sup>26</sup> "In your anger do not sin"<sup>[d]</sup>: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, <sup>27</sup> and do not give the devil a foothold. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.

<sup>29</sup> Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. <sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup> Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. <sup>32</sup> Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.
